

Windsor Law Firms

Windsor Law Firms - Our team of administrative lawyer's works on different issues connected to tribunals and regulatory agencies for our clients who comprise: businesses, not-for-profit organizations, governments and individuals. Our lawyers represent clients before tribunals and commissions regarding issues associated to information and privacy, gaming and liquor, insurance, human rights and water quality safety.

Our lawyers have expertise dealing with boards of inquiry and other administrative tribunals established for workplace health and safety and environmental law. We provide initial due diligence and structure compliance-based transaction strategies. We have several years of knowledge acting for clients before administrative law decision-makers. Our lawyers likewise bring to the table valuable adjudicative experience via serving as mediators and arbitrators.