

Windsor Accident Lawyer

Windsor Accident Lawyer - Our Intellectual Property (IP) Team knows the importance and value of your intellectual property. In order to assist you license and protect your intellectual property, we offer various legal services related to trade secrets, trademarks, copyright and industrial designs. Our clients are those involved in the creation, licensing, use, protection and acquisition of intellectual property. Our IP lawyers have many years of experience securing trademark, patent, copyright and industrial design registrations nationally and internationally. We are experienced at enforcing your intellectual property rights.

We offer the following Patent services: filing, prosecution and preparation of patent applications; prior art searching; assignments and licensing; enforcement.

We likewise provide advice and services for Trademarks comprising: searching and opinions relating to registration of word, design, certification or public authority marks and distinguishing guises; filing and preparation of applications for registration; licensing, assignment and franchising agreements; opposition proceedings before the Trade-mark Opposition Board; passing-off opinions and infringements; expungent (removal) applications and renewals; trademark defense and enforcement.

For Copyrights, we offer searching; licensing of literary (including software), musical and dramatic works; filing, prosecution and preparation of applications for registration; infringement opinions; assignment and copyright protected works and sale of copyright; copyright defense and enforcement.

We assist preserve your organization's competitive advantage through the protection of Trade Secrets. We draft agreements and create programs for the protection of confidential data.

For Industrial Designs we offer searching and availability opinions; licensing and assignment; prosecution, preparation and filing of applications for registration.

We have a lot of clients from different trades including entertainment, agriculture, hotels, manufacturing, technology and travel.