

Windsor Labour Lawyers

Windsor Labour Lawyers - The quality of relationships between the employer and personnel can effect the entire office. We have experts within Employment Law to be able to help represent both employers and workers in the many matters which may affect the work environment. Our firm is dedicated to offering high-quality assistance.

We help employers to understand their common law and statutory duties with respect to their workers. We help draft and negotiate employment contracts, and prepare workplace policies and procedures. When issues occur with respect to accommodation for different staff, we can inform employers about their obligations, and negotiate an outcome that meets the client's objectives.

Our firm's employment lawyers keep up-to-date and are rather knowledgeable concerning applicable workplace legislation. Our extensive knowledge extends into the areas of constructive dismissal claims, termination packages, harassment and human rights complaints, and employment standards compliance. We present all the alternatives to our clients prior to suggesting the best course of action.
